

WWJD?

Most people assume WWJD is for “What would Jesus do?” But the initials have really been changed to stand for “What would Jesus drive?”

- One theory is that Jesus would tool around in an old Plymouth because the Bible says, “God drove Adam and Eve out of the garden in a Fury.”
- But in Psalm 83, the Almighty clearly owns a Pontiac and a Geo. The passage urges Jesus to “pursue your enemies with your Tempest and terrify them with your Storm.”
- Perhaps God favors Dodge pickup trucks, because Moses' followers are warned not to go up a mountain “until the Ram's horn sounds a long blast.”
- Some scholars insist that Jesus drove a Honda but didn't like to talk about it. As proof, they cite a verse in St. John's gospel where Christ tells the crowd, “For I did not speak of my own Accord...”
- Meanwhile, Moses rode an old British motorcycle, as evidenced by a Bible passage declaring that “the roar of Moses' Triumph is heard in the hills.”
- Joshua drove a Triumph sports car with a hole in its muffler: “Joshua's Triumph was heard throughout the land.”
- And, following Jesus' lead, the Apostles carpooled in a Honda... “The Apostles were in one Accord.”
