

No Room

There was no room for the Christ Child in Bethlehem that day, the inns were all crowded, He had no place to stay.

The most celestial place was none too good for him, but they laid Him off in a manger where the lights were low and dim.

There was no tomb for Jesus, they used a borrowed one that there might be a resting place for God's most Holy Son.

He was the King of Glory, the richest of all men, but there was no room for Jesus when He came to the end.

They have no room for Jesus in the busy world of today, they mock, they sneer, they curse Him in every sort of way.

*He's standing at your heart's door beckoning to come in,
but you've no room for Jesus, He's crowded out by sin.*

*Will you make room for Jesus and enthrone Him in your heart?
He'll drive away despair, and joy and peace impart.*

There was no room for the Christ child in Bethlehem that day, but you can make room in your heart, if you'll invite him to stay.
